Domestic Violence Restraining Order
After Hearing forms
There is no fee for the packet.

Once my hearing is held, complete the following forms to make the order permanent:

Table with 2 columns: Form name and number, Last revised on. Includes items like Restraining Order After Hearing (CLETS) (DV 130), Child Custody and Visitation Order (DV 140), Order: No Travel with Children (DV 145), and Supervised Visitation Order (DV 150).

Once the Order After Hearing has been signed, you must have the Order served.

Once the Restraining Order After Hearing (CLETS) (DV 130) has been signed, by the Commissioner/Judge, you must have someone serve the "person to be restrained" with a copy. This is done by mail.

Who can serve the documents?

- The server must be 18 or older and not be involved in your case.
The sheriff's office of the county where the respondent resides.
If you are requesting the sheriff's office to perform service and not charge a fee, you must ask the clerk for a certified copy of the Order on Waiver of Fees then provide this to the sheriff's office.
A process server. A list can be retrieved at the Clerk's office.

The following form is completed and signed by the server who mailed the documents to the "person to be restrained":

Table with 2 columns: Form name and number, Last revised on. Includes Proof of Service (by mail) (DV 250).

Notice/Proof of Service:

Law enforcement must first determine if the restrained person had notice of the orders. If notice cannot be verified, the restrained person must be advised of the terms of the orders. If the restrained person then fails to obey the orders, the officer must enforce them. (Family Code, § 6383.)

Consider the restrained person "served" (noticed) if:

- The officer sees a copy of the Proof of Service or confirms that the Proof of Service is on file; or
- The restrained person was at the restraining order hearing or was informed of the order by an officer. (Fam. Code, § 6383; Pen. Code, § 836(c)(2).) An officer can obtain information about the contents of the order in the Domestic Violence Restraining Orders System (DVROS). (Fam. Code, § 6381(b)(c).)

If the Protected Person Contacts the Restrained Person:

Even if the protected person invites or consents to contact with the restrained person, the orders remain in effect and must be enforced. The protected person cannot be arrested for inviting or consenting to contact with the restrained person. The orders can be changed only by another court order. (Pen. Code, § 13710(b).)

Enforcing the Restraining Order in California:

Any law enforcement officer in California who receives, sees, or verifies the orders on a paper copy, the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS), or in an NCIC Protection Order File must enforce the orders.
