NOTICE

When you plan to visit the Family Law Facilitator's of the Self-Help Center, please be aware that we do not have room or appropriate supervision to have children in the Self-Help Center area.

Our Space is quite limited, and children get bored easily. Getting your legal paperwork prepared takes concentration without any distractions.

If you cannot arrange some type of day care for your children, please bring another adult with you who will watch your children in the hall outside the Center while you take care of your legal issues.
Thank you for your understanding.
