GUARDIANSHIP PAMPHLET

(FOR GUARDIANSHIPS OF CHILDREN IN THE PROBATE COURT)

This pamphlet provides basic information about probate guardianships for children. It includes general information about court procedures, the duties and responsibilities of probate guardians, and other helpful material to assist you in fulfilling the obligations of a guardian. (For information about becoming a guardian of a dependent or ward of the Juvenile Court, you should consult the separate pamphlet on that subject.) Further information about probate guardianships may be obtained from an attorney, the Probate Code, and private publications and resources. You should also consult the court or the court clerk's office regarding special procedures or rules in your county.

Form Adopted for Mandatory Use
Judicial Council of California
GC-205 [Rev. January 1, 2001]

What is Guardianship?

Guardianship is a court process by which a person other than a parent is given custody of a child or authority over a child's property. Appointment as guardian requires the filing of a petition and approval by the court. This pamphlet will provide you with some basic information about guardianships. If the court establishes a probate guardianship, the guardianship may be:

- A guardianship of the person of the child (custody);
- A guardianship of the child's "estate" (property); or
- Both.

If the court appoints you as a guardian for a child, you will assume important duties and obligations. You will become responsible to the court. It is essential that you clearly understand your duties and responsibilities as guardian. If you have any questions, you should consult with an attorney who is qualified to advise you in these matters.

What is a Legal Guardian?

A legal guardian is an adult to whom the court has given authority and responsibility to provide care for a child, or to manage the child's assets, or both.

Who May Be Legal Guardians?

Relatives, friends of the family, or other interested persons may be considered as potential legal guardians.

Before You File the Petition

Before you file a petition for guardianship, you should consider the following:

- Is a guardianship really necessary?
- Have you considered the alternatives?
- Do the parents consent to the guardianship?
- Without parental consent, is there enough evidence for you to prove the need for a guardianship?
- Do you need legal advice or assistance?

Some Alternatives to Guardianship

Private agreements – You can make a private agreement with the child's parents to provide care for the child. A written agreement can be made showing that you have "custody" of the child with the parents' consent. Normally it is also beneficial to secure a medical release for emergencies, especially if a parent is not readily available. Note: The parents may revoke this type of agreement at any time.

Caregiver's Authorization Affidavit – The California Family Code allows a person who is related to a child to fill out a Caregiver's Authorization Affidavit. The affidavit normally allows that person, as a caregiver, to enroll the child in school and secure medical treatment for the child.

You may read Family Code section 6550 for details about this law. The caregiver form may be available through your local county clerk's office, through private legal publications, or from a private attorney. Note: The parents may revoke your authority or override your decision under this type of agreement at any time.

Other financial arrangements – The law allows parents to make other financial arrangements for property inherited by or given to their children. For instance, a blocked account and other protective measures can be used without the appointment of a guardian of the estate. Consultation with an attorney for these types of matters is highly recommended. Note: Some financial institutions, insurance companies, and courts require the appointment of a guardian of the estate before they will release funds on behalf of a minor.

THE PROCESS – BRIEFLY

If you decide that a child needs a probate guardianship, the first step in the process of establishing guardianship is to fill out and file the petition and other required documents with the clerk of the court. Some counties have additional "local forms" that need to be filed along with the standard forms.

Any interested party or the child, if 12 years or older, may file the petition. Specific persons must be given notice of the petition, unless excused by the court, before the court can hear the case.

The court may order that an investigation be completed before it makes its decision. If this occurs, you, the child, and any other persons deemed essential will probably be contacted about the case. The investigator will give the court a report and make a recommendation on what should occur. At that stage, the case may go to trial. The court may grant the petition or may find that there are insufficient grounds to establish a guardianship.

There is a fee for filing a guardianship petition. In addition, you may be charged a fee for a guardianship investigation. If neither you nor the child's estate can afford to pay the fees, you may request that the court waive the fee requirement. The court clerk can provide you with a fee waiver form.

GUARDIANSHIP OF THE PERSON

The probate court may appoint a guardian of the person for a child when no parent is available to meet the needs of the child because of the parents' death, incapacity, abandonment, military obligations, or other reasons.

Fundamental Responsibilities – The guardian of the person of a child has the care, custody, and control of the child. As guardian, you are responsible for providing for food, clothing, shelter, education, and all the medical and dental needs of the child. You must provide for the safety, protection, and physical and emotional growth of the child. Like a parent, you should maintain close contact with the child's school and physician.

Raising children is not always easy. You should become familiar with community resources that can assist both you and the child. You may get help and information from a support group for guardians.

Custody – As guardian of the person of the child, you have full legal and physical custody of the child and are responsible for all decisions relating to the child. The child's parents can no longer make decisions for the child while there is a guardianship. The parents' rights are suspended—not terminated—as long as a guardian is appointed for a minor. If you wish, you may ask the parents for their opinions about matters relating to the child.

Education – As guardian of the person of the child, you are responsible for the child's education. You determine where the child should attend school. As the child's advocate within the school system, you should attend conferences and play an active role in the child's education. For younger children, you may want to consider enrolling the child in Head Start or other similar programs. For older children, you should consider their future educational needs such as college or a specialized school. You must assist the child in obtaining services if the child has special educational needs. You should help the child in setting and attaining his or her educational goals.

Residence – As guardian, you have the right to determine where the child lives. The child normally will live with you, but when it is necessary, you are allowed to make other arrangements if they are in the best interest of the child. You should obtain court approval before placing the child back with his or her parents.

As guardian, you do not have the right to change the child's residence to a place outside California unless you first receive the court's permission. If the court grants permission, California law requires that you establish legal guardianship in the state where the child will be living. Individual states have different rules regarding guardianships. You should seek additional information about guardianships in the state where you want the child to live.

Medical treatment – As guardian, you are responsible for meeting the medical needs of the child. In most cases, you have the authority to consent to the child's medical treatment. However, if the child is 14 years or older, surgery may not be performed on the child unless either (1) both the child and the guardian consent or (2) a court order is obtained that specifically authorizes the surgery. This holds true except in emergencies.

A guardian may not place a child involuntarily in a mental health treatment facility under a probate guardianship. A mental health conservatorship proceeding is required for such an involuntary commitment. However, the guardian may secure counseling and other necessary mental health services for the child. A variety of counseling services is available to help children. As guardian, you are expected to secure necessary services, cooperate with counselors, and maintain regular contacts with the child's treatment providers.

The law allows older and more mature children to consent to their own treatment in certain situations, such as outpatient mental health treatment, medical care related to pregnancy or sexually transmitted diseases, and drug and alcohol treatment.

Community resources – There are agencies in each county that may be helpful in meeting the specific needs of children who come from conflicted, troubled, or deprived environments. If the child has special needs, you must strive to meet those needs or secure appropriate services. Some children may have physical or learning disabilities. Other children come from abusive homes or have been victims of abuse. Counseling and other services may be necessary to assist a child who has special needs or has had unpleasant life experiences. If you need assistance, you should check with the court or with your local child protective services agency for a referral to agencies that can help you and the child.

Financial support – Even when the child has a guardian, the parents are still obligated to support the child financially. The guardian may take action to obtain child support. You may contact the local child support agency in your county to collect support from a parent. The child may also be eligible for Temporary Aid for Needy Families, TANF, formerly known as AFDC, social security benefits, Veterans Administration benefits, Indian child welfare benefits, and other public or private funds.

Visitation – The court may require that you allow visitation or contact between the child and his or her parents. The child's needs often require that the parent-child relationship be maintained, within reason. However, the court may place restrictions on the visits, such as the requirement of supervision. The court may also impose other conditions in the child's best interest.

Under most circumstances, it is best for you to have a working relationship with the parents if possible. However, in every case, you must follow all orders of the court, including those that may restrict contacts and visitation.

Driver's license – As guardian of the person, you have the authority to consent to the minor's application for a driver's license. If you consent, you will become liable for any civil damages that may result if the minor causes an accident. The law requires that anyone signing the DMV application obtain insurance to cover the minor.

Enlistment in the armed services – The guardian may consent to a minor's enlistment in the armed services. If the minor enters into active duty with the armed forces, the minor becomes emancipated under California law.

Marriage – For the minor to marry, the guardian and the court must give permission. If the minor enters a valid marriage, the minor becomes emancipated under California law.

Change of address – A guardian must notify the court in writing of any change in the address of either the child or the guardian. This includes any changes that result from the child's leaving the guardian's home or returning to the parent's home. You must always obtain court permission before you move the child to another state or country.

Court visitors and status reports – Some counties have a program which "court visitors" track and review guardianships. If your county has such a program, you will be expected to cooperate with all requests of the court visitor. Also, as guardian, you may be required to fill out and file status reports. In all counties, you must cooperate with the court and court investigators.

Misconduct of the child – A guardian, like a parent, is liable for the harm and damages caused by the willful misconduct of a child. There are special rules concerning harm caused the use of a firearm. If you are concerned about your possible liability, you should consult an attorney.

Additional responsibilities – The court may place other conditions on the guardianship or additional duties upon you, as guardian. For example, the court may require the guardian to complete counseling or parenting classes, to obtain specific services for the child, or to follow a scheduled visitation plan between the child and the child's parents or relatives. As guardian, you must follow all court orders.

Termination of guardianship of the person – A guardianship of the person automatically ends when the child reaches the age of 18, is adopted, marries, is emancipated by court order, enters military service, or dies. If none of these events has occurred, the child, a parent, or the guardian may petition the court for termination of guardianship. But it must be shown that the guardianship is no longer necessary or that termination of the guardianship is in the child's best interest.

GUARDIANSHIP OF THE ESTATE

If the court appoints you as guardian of the child's estate, you will have additional duties and obligations. The money and other assets of the child are called the child's "estate." Appointment as guardian of a child's estate is a solemn matter. It is taken very seriously by the court. The guardian of the estate is required to manage the child's funds, collect and make an inventory of the assets, keep accurate financial records, and regularly file financial accountings with the court. The use of an attorney for legal advice in managing the estate is recommended.

MANAGING THE ESTATE

Prudent investments – As guardian of the estate, you must manage the child's assets with the care of a prudent person dealing with someone else's property. This means that you must be cautious and may not make speculative or risky investments.

Keeping estate assets separate – As guardian of the estate, you must keep the money and property of the child's estate separate from everyone else's, including your own. When you open a bank account for the estate, the account name must indicate that it is a guardianship account and not your personal account.

You should use the child's social security number when opening estate accounts. You should never deposit estate funds in your personal account or otherwise mix them with your own funds or anyone else's funds, even for brief periods. Securities in the estate must be held in a name that shows that they are estate property and not your personal property.

Interest-bearing accounts and other investments – Except for checking accounts intended for ordinary expenses, you should place estate funds in interest-bearing accounts. You may deposit estate funds in insured accounts in federally insured financial institutions, but you should not put more than $100,000 in any single institution. You should consult with an attorney before making other kinds of investments.

Blocked accounts – A blocked account is an account with a financial institution in which money or securities are placed. No person may withdraw funds from a blocked account without the court's permission.

Depending on the amount and character of the child's property, the guardian may elect or the court may require that estate assets be placed in a blocked account. As guardian of the estate, you must follow the direction of the court and the procedures required to deposit funds in this type of account. The use of a blocked account is a safeguard and may save the estate the cost of a bond.

Other restrictions – As guardian of the estate, you will have other restrictions on your authority to deal with estate assets. Without prior court order of the court, you may not pay fees to yourself or your attorney. You may not make a gift of estate assets to anyone. You may not borrow money from the estate. You may not use estate funds to purchase real property without prior court order.

If you do not obtain the court's permission to spend estate funds, you may be compelled to reimburse the estate from your own personal funds and may be removed as guardian. You should consult with an attorney concerning the legal requirements relating to sales, leases, mortgages, and investment of estate property.

If the child of whose estate you are the guardian has a living parent or if that child receives assets or is entitled to support from another source, you must obtain court approval before using guardianship assets for the child's support, maintenance, or education. You must file a petition or include a request for approval in the original petition, and set forth which exceptional circumstances justify any use of guardianship assets for the child's support. The court ordinarily will grant such a petition for only a limited period of time, usually not more than one year, and only for specific and limited purposes.

INVENTORY OF ESTATE PROPERTY

Locate the estate's property – As guardian of the estate, you must locate, take possession of, and protect the child's income and assets that will be administered in the estate. You must change the ownership of all assets into the guardianship estate's name. For real estate, you should record a copy of your Letters of Guardianship with the county recorder in each county where the child owns real property.

Determine the value of the property – As guardian of the estate, you must arrange to have a court-appointed referee determine the value of the estate property unless the appointment is waived by the court. You, rather than the referee, must determine the value of certain "cash items." An attorney can advise you about how to do this.

File an inventory and appraisal – As guardian of the estate, you must file an inventory and appraisal within 90 days after your appointment. You may be required to return to court 90 days after your appointment as guardian of the estate, to ensure that you have properly filed the inventory and appraisal.

INSURANCE

Insurance coverage – As guardian of the estate, you should make sure that there is appropriate and sufficient insurance covering the assets and risks of the estate. You should maintain the insurance in force throughout the entire period of the guardianship or until the insured asset is sold.

RECORD KEEPING AND ACCOUNTING

Records – As guardian of the estate, you must keep complete, accurate records of each financial transaction affecting the estate. The checkbook for the guardianship checking account is your indispensable tool for keeping records of income and expenditures. You should also keep receipts for all purchases.

Record keeping is critical because you will have to prepare an accounting of all money and property you have received, what you have spent, the date of each transaction, and its purpose. You will also have to be able to describe in detail what is left after you have paid the estate's expenses.

Accountings – As guardian of the estate, you must file a petition requesting that the court review and approve your accounting one year after your appointment and at least every two years after that. The court may ask that you justify some or all expenditures. You should have receipts and other documents available for the court's review, if requested.

If you do not file your accounting as required, the court will order you to do so. You may be removed as guardian for failure to file an accounting.

Format – As guardian of the estate, you must comply with all state and local rules when filing your accounting. A particular format is specified in the Probate Code, which you must follow when you present your account to the court. You should check local rules for any special local requirements.

Legal advice – An attorney can advise you and help you prepare your inventories, accountings, and petitions to the court. If you have any questions, you should consult with an attorney.

OTHER GENERAL INFORMATION

Removal of a guardian – A guardian may be removed for specific reasons or when it is in the child's best interest. A guardian may be removed either on the court's own motion or by a petition filed by the child, a relative of the child, or any other interested person. If necessary, the court may appoint a successor guardian, or the court may return the child to a parent if that is found to be in the child's best interest.

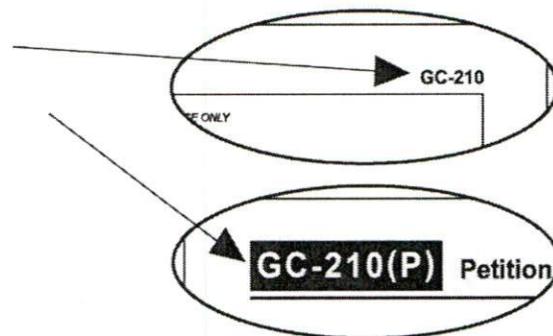

Legal documents – For your appointment as guardian to be valid, the Order Appointing Guardian of Minor must be signed. Once the court signs the order, the guardian must take prepared Letters of Guardianship to the clerk's office where the clerk will issue the letters. Letters of Guardianship is a legal document that provides proof that you have been appointed and are serving as the guardian for a minor. You should obtain several certified copies of the Letters from the clerk. These legal documents will be of assistance to you in the performance of your duties, such as enrolling the child in school, obtaining medical care, and taking care of estate business.

Attorneys and legal resources – If you have an attorney, the attorney will advise you on your duties and responsibilities, the limits of your authority, the rights of the child, and your dealings with the court. If you have legal questions, you should consult with your attorney. Please remember that the court staff cannot give you legal advice.

If you are not represented by an attorney, you may obtain answers to your questions by contacting community resources, private publications, or your local law library.

Look at the numbers at the top of a form to match them with the form numbers listed below. You can use this form as a checklist.

OR

* Appointment of a guardian for a Native American child is subject to special requirements that are not discussed in these instructions. See item 14 on the next page.

I want to become a guardian of a child. What forms do I need to file with the court?

- 1 Fill out, sign, and file with the court either of the following form petitions ("your petition"):
 - Form GC-210(P), Petition for Appointment of Guardian of the Person (recommended if you won't have an attorney to help you); or
 - Form GC-210, Petition for Appointment of Guardian of Minor.
- 2 Fill out the following forms and attach them to or file them separately with your petition:
 - Attach to your petition a separate copy of Form GC-210(CA), Guardianship Petition—Child Information Attachment, for each child you think needs a guardian.
 - Sign and attach to your petition one copy of Form FL-105/GC-120, Declaration Under Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act (UCCJEA), for all children you think need a guardian.
 - Sign and file separately with your petition Form GC-212, Confidential Guardian Screening Form. This form is confidential, under the direct control of the court, and not available to the general public.
 - If required by your court, sign and file separately with your petition, Form GC-211, Consent of Proposed Guardian (item 1 of that multi-purpose form, at the top of the page). Many courts don't require that form if you are asking for your own appointment as guardian, so check with your court before you file it.
 - File separately with your petition any local forms your court wants you to file with your petition (check your court's local rules and guidelines for information and instructions about these forms).

What must I do if I want the court to appoint someone other than myself as guardian?

- 3 Instead of filling out and signing Form GC-212, listed above in Step 2, ask the person you want the court to appoint as guardian to fill out and sign that form.
- 4 Instead of signing item 1 of Form GC-211, listed above in Step 2, ask the person you want the court to appoint as guardian to sign item 1 of that form. Many courts don't require that form if the person you want as guardian signs your petition (as an additional petitioner), so check with the court on the need to file that form if that person signed your petition. See page 2 of this form to learn about use of another part of Form GC-211.

What can I do if I can't afford to pay the court's filing fees?

- 5 Fill out, sign, and file Form FW-001, Application for Waiver of Court Fees and Costs, and fill out and give the court clerk Form FW-003, Order on Application for Waiver of Court Fees and Costs, for the judge to sign.

What happens when I file my petition and the other forms listed above?

The court clerk will give you a case number, a date and time when, and a courtroom or department of the court where the judge will hear your request to appoint a guardian. Take an extra copy of your petition and the other papers you must file to the court when you file the originals and ask the clerk to stamp the filing date and case number on your copies and note the hearing date and place on your copy of the petition. Some courts will require you to give the clerk one or more extra copies of your papers, so check with your court before you go to the court to file the papers.

What forms do I need after I file my petition and have a hearing date?

- 6 If either or both of the child's parents or any other person you must notify of the hearing on your petition will agree with your request for appointment of a guardian, fill out and have each of them date and sign item 4 at the bottom of Form GC-211, *Consent to Appointment of Guardian and Waiver of Notice. File the form with the court when you file the Notice of Hearing, discussed below.

What must I do before the court hearing on my petition?

You must arrange for someone other than yourself to notify certain people about your petition and the court hearing and show the court that he or she has done so. Read Form GC-510, *What is "Proof of Service" in a Guardianship, and:

- 7 Fill out the first page of Form GC-020, *Notice of Hearing—Guardianship or Conservatorship.
- 8 Follow the instructions in Form GC-510 for personal delivery ("personal service") of copies of your petition and the Notice of Hearing and showing the court that personal service has been made ("proving service").
- 9 Follow the instructions in Form GC-510 for mailing ("service by mail") copies of your petition and the Notice of Hearing and showing the court that service by mail has been made ("proving service").
- 10 File with the court at least 5 days before the hearing, the original Form GC-020, with attached original filled-in proofs of personal and mailed service, signed by the person(s) who delivered and mailed the papers.
- 11 Fill out and deliver the following forms to the court at or before the hearing on your petition (check your court's local rules for the deadlines for delivery of these forms to the court):
- Form GC-240, *Order Appointing Guardian of Minor (the judge will sign this Order at or shortly after the hearing on your petition if he or she grants your request for appointment of a guardian);
 - Form GC-248, *Duties of Guardian and Acknowledgment of Receipt (you or any other person the court has appointed as guardian must sign this form and the form must be filed with the court before the clerk will sign and file the Letters of Guardianship (see below)); and
 - Form GC-250, *Letters of Guardianship (the court clerk will sign and file the original of this form, often called "Letters," and will give you (for a fee) certified copies that you, or any other person the court has appointed as guardian, must have to show legal authority to act as the child's guardian.
- 12 Fill out and file any local forms your court requires at or before the hearing on your petition (check your court's local rules for information about these forms, deadlines for filing them, and requirements for service of copies to other persons interested in the case).

Need help?

- 13 Your court may have a self-help center or a volunteer assistance program that can help you with a guardianship, or the court may be able to refer you to other organizations in your area that can help you.
- 14 If you can get on the Internet, you can go to the California Courts Self-Help Center Web site, at www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp/family/guardianship (English) or www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp/espanol/familia/tutela (Spanish). This Web site provides information about the guardianship process, including information about what you need to do if the child in your case is a Native American or has a Native American ancestor, and information about other resources available to you. You can also download a copy of Form GC-205, *Guardianship Pamphlet and all the forms mentioned above. The pamphlet has a basic explanation of a guardianship. It is available in Spanish and several other languages. You can even fill out the necessary forms on your computer while visiting this site and print them out ready for signing and filing, free of charge.
- 15 You can also go to www.courtinfo.ca.gov/courts/trial/courtlist.htm to access your court's Web site. This site can tell you where to file your forms and go for court hearings and can advise you about the court's rules and practices you need to know during the progress of your case. You can also download copies of the court's local forms.

What is "service"?

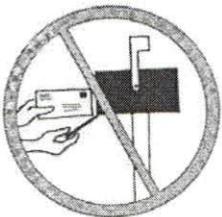

- When you are involved in a court case, you are responsible for delivery ("service") of copies of important papers you file with the court to other people involved in the case. Depending on the circumstances, these papers must be served by personal delivery (called "personal service"), or may be served by mail (called "service by mail").
- If you file a petition for appointment of a guardian for a child, you are a petitioner. At the beginning of the case the petitioner must arrange for personal service of copies of the petition and other papers on certain people, must see that these papers are served on certain other people either by mail or by personal service (at the petitioner's choice), and then must show the court that this has been done (called "proving service," or "proof of service").
- This form explains what papers must be served at the beginning of a guardianship, who must be served with these papers, how and when service must be made, and how and when you, as a guardianship petitioner, must prove to the court that service has been made. You can find out more about the papers that you must file in another form available from the court, Form GC-505, Forms You Need to Ask the Court to Appoint a Guardian of the Person.

What papers must be served at the beginning of a guardianship case?

- A filled-in copy of the petition for appointment of a guardian (the "Petition").
In a guardianship of the person, this may be either Form GC-210(P), Petition for Appointment of a Guardian of the Person or Form GC-210, Petition for Appointment of Guardian of Minor. Copies of all papers attached to the Petition must also be served with it.
- A filled-in copy of Form GC-020, Notice of Hearing—Guardianship or Conservatorship, (the "Notice of Hearing") showing the date, time, and place of the hearing on the Petition, including (unsigned) copies of all attachments showing proof of service.

Who must be personally served?

(You may use this form as a checklist. Check all that apply to your case.)

Don't serve these by mail!

- The child who needs a guardian, but only if he or she is at least 12 years old.
- The child's parents.
- Any person who has legal custody of the child or is serving as court-appointed guardian of the child's property (the child's "estate").
- Any person nominated as guardian of the child by one or both of the child's parents (if your petition does not ask the court to appoint that person as guardian).
- Any person nominated as guardian of the estate of the child for property received by the child from the person making the nomination.

How do I arrange for personal service?

Someone—not you or anyone else who signed the Petition—must personally serve (hand-deliver) copies of the Notice of Hearing and the Petition to the persons named above. Service lets these persons know:

- That you are asking the court to appoint a guardian for the child named in the Petition.
- The person you want the court to appoint as guardian (either yourself or someone else).
- The date and time when, and the place where, the court will hear your request.

Who can serve?

Ask someone you know, a registered process server, or a representative of the county sheriff's civil division, to personally serve copies of the forms to the persons named above. The forms cannot be sent to those persons by mail.

- The server must be at least 18 years of age.
- A registered process server is a business you pay to deliver court forms. Look in a telephone directory under "Process Serving."
- The sheriff's civil division often has an office at the courthouse. You will also have to pay for its services.

How does the server personally serve the Notice of Hearing and the Petition?

Ask the server to:

- Walk up to each person to be served and make sure he or she is the right person.
- Hand each person copies of the filled-out Notice of Hearing and the Petition.
- Fill out and sign Form GC-020(P), Proof of Personal Service of Notice of Hearing. If the server delivers papers to more people than can be listed on this form, ask the server to add the names of the additional people served on one or more copies of Form DE-120(PA)/GC-20(PA), Attachment to Notice of Hearing Proof of Personal Service.
- Give the filled-out and signed Form GC-020(P) and any attachment pages back to you.

What if the person served won't take the papers or tears them up?

The server must attempt to make personal delivery (but peacefully!) even if the person served won't take the papers. It doesn't matter if the person tears them up or throws them down after they are handed to him or her. (A registered process server or sheriff's deputy will know how to complete a good service. If you think someone who must be personally served will try to avoid service, it is a good idea to use one of these professionals to serve that person.)

Who signs the Proof of Personal Service?

- Only the person who serves the Notice of Hearing and the Petition can sign Form GC-020(P). Neither you, any other petitioner, nor the person served may sign this form.
- If more than one person personally serves papers, each server must fill out and sign his or her own separate Form GC-020(P) showing the names of the persons he or she serves.

Who may be served by mail?

(You may use this form as a checklist. Check all that apply to your case.)

- The child's relatives listed in the child's Form GC-210(CA), Guardianship Petition—Child Information Attachment, attached to the Petition:

- Grandfather (father's father)
- Grandmother (father's mother)
- Grandfather (mother's father)
- Grandmother (mother's mother)
- Brother(s) (including half-brothers) (if 12 years of age or older)
- Sister(s) (including half-sisters) (if 12 years of age or older)

These may be served by mail!

- If the child has a brother or sister under the age of 12, copies of the Notice of Hearing and the Petition must be mailed to one of the following persons for him or her instead of mailing directly to the young brother or sister:
- The brother's or sister's parent;
 - A court-appointed guardian of the brother or sister; or
 - A person having legal custody of the brother or sister who lives with that brother or sister.
- (If a parent, guardian, or legal custodian of a brother or sister of the child involved in the case is a petitioner, service of notice to that person on behalf of the brother or sister is not necessary.)*
- Any person having the physical care of the child who does not have legal custody of the child.
- If your petition requests appointment of a guardian of the person who is not related to the child, the Director of the Department of Social Services, Children's Services Operations and Evaluation Branch, 744 P Street MS 3-34, Sacramento, CA 95814.
- Your court may require you to serve other persons or organizations by mail. Check your court's local rules and practices to find out if this applies to you.

Who may be served by mail ? (Continued)

- If the child is a patient in, or on leave from, a state hospital run by the State Departments of Mental Health or Developmental Disabilities, to the Director of that department. The address for the Director of Mental Health is 1600 Ninth Street, Room 151, Sacramento, CA 95814. The address for the Director of Developmental Disabilities is 1600 Ninth Street, Room 240, Sacramento, CA 95814, Attn.: Office of Legal Affairs.
- If the child has developmental disabilities and the person you want the court to appoint as guardian is: (1) not the child's natural parent; (2) a provider of services to persons with developmental disabilities or the spouse or an employee of a provider; and (3) not a public agency, to the Director of the Regional Center for the Developmentally Disabled in the child's county. (But see When must the Notice of Hearing and the Petition be served? on page 4 of this form for a special requirement for mailing papers to a Regional Center Director.)
- If the child is or may be a Native American, or has Native American ancestors, there are additional mailing and other requirements that may apply to your case. These requirements are not discussed in this form. If you can get on the Internet, you can go to the California Courts Self-Help Center Web site to get more information about the special requirements for a guardianship involving a Native American child. The Web site's address is www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp/family/guardianship (English) or www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp/espanol/familia/tutela (Spanish).

Who need not be served (unless the court orders otherwise)?

Unless the courts orders that they be served, you do not need to arrange for service on the parents or other relatives of a child who has been relinquished to a licensed adoption agency, or the parents of a child a court has declared to be free from the parents' custody and control.

How do I arrange for service by mail?

Someone—not you or anyone else who signed the Petition—must do the mailing to the persons and organizations named above that are involved in your case. “Doing the mailing” means actually placing the papers in the envelopes and delivering the sealed envelopes into the possession of the U.S. Postal Service . Someone else can address the envelopes and add the postage, but the person who signs the proof of service (see below) must be able to say that he or she enclosed the papers in the envelopes and delivered the sealed envelopes to the U.S. Postal Service on a certain date at a specific place (city and state), and that the addresses on the envelopes were as they are shown in the proof of service.

Who can serve by mail?

- The person doing the mailing must be at least 18 years of age.
- He or she must not be a petitioner or a proposed guardian in your case.
- He or she must live or be employed in the county where the mailing (deposit with the U.S. Postal Service) takes place.

How does the server serve the Notice of Hearing and the Petition by mail?

Ask the server to:

- Deposit with the US. Postal Service, with first-class postage prepaid, sealed envelopes (9" x 12" or 10" x 13" Manila envelopes are recommended) addressed to the persons or organizations listed above that apply to your case. The envelopes should contain filled-in copies of Form GC-020, *Notice of Hearing—Guardianship or Conservatorship, and the Petition, including all attached pages mentioned in it.
- Make sure the addresses shown on the envelopes for the relatives of each child match the addresses shown for these relatives in each child's Form GC-210(CA), *Guardianship Petition—Child Information Attachment.

How does the server serve the Notice of Hearing and the Petition by mail? (Continued)

Ask the server to (continued):

- Fill out, date, and sign the Proof of Service on the second page of the original Form GC-020.
Don't sign that form yourself.
- If there are more than four persons being served by mail, continue the list of persons served by mail on one or more copies of Form DE-120(MA)/GC-020(MA), Attachment to Notice of Hearing Proof of Service by Mail.
- Give the filled-out and signed original Proof of Service and all filled-out attached pages back to you.

When must the Notice of Hearing and the Petition be served?

- When you file your Petition, the court clerk will give you a date and time when, and a courtroom or department where, the judge will hear your request for appointment of a guardian.
- Once you have the date, time, and place of the hearing, that information must be filled in on Form GC-020, Notice of Hearing—Guardianship or Conservatorship, and that form and the Petition, with all pages attached to it, must then be personally served or served by mail on the persons and organizations mentioned above that apply to your case.
- With the exception noted below, personal service and service by mail must be completed at least 15 days before the date of the hearing.
- If service must be made on the Director of the Regional Center for the Developmentally Disabled for the child's county, service must be completed at least 30 days before the hearing. If the child in your case is developmentally disabled and you think you may have to serve a Regional Center director, when you file your Petition you can ask the clerk for a later hearing date because you will need more time than usual to serve the Notice of Hearing and the Petition.

What happens if the papers aren't served in time?

If the Notice of Hearing and Petition aren't served in time, the court will have to continue (postpone) the hearing date on your petition. This will delay appointment of a guardian for the child or children involved in your case.

What do I do with the completed Notice of Hearing and the attached proofs of personal service and service by mail?

- File with the court at least 5 days before your hearing date the original Form GC-020, Notice of Hearing—Guardianship or Conservatorship, with the filled-out and signed Proof of Service on the second page, the filled-out, signed, and attached Form GC-020(P), Proof of Personal Service of Notice of Hearing—Guardianship or Conservatorship, and all attached pages showing additional persons served. File these papers with the court as soon as you can. The 5-day period mentioned above is a minimum time period.
- When you file Form GC-020, take an extra copy with you for the court to stamp, showing that the original form was filed on that day.
- Bring that copy with you to the hearing.

- e. Medical treatment - As guardian, you are responsible for meeting the medical needs of the child. In most cases, you have the authority to consent to the child's medical treatment. However, if the child is 14 years or older, surgery may not be performed on the child unless either (1) both the child and the guardian consent or (2) a court order is obtained that specifically authorizes the surgery. This holds true except in emergencies. A guardian may not place a child involuntarily in a mental health treatment facility under a probate guardianship. A mental health conservatorship proceeding is required for such an involuntary commitment. However, the guardian may secure counseling and other necessary mental health services for the child. The law also allows older and more mature children to consent to their own treatment in certain situations such as outpatient mental health treatment, medical care related to pregnancy or sexually transmitted diseases, and drug and alcohol treatment.
- f. Community resources - There are agencies in each county that may be helpful in meeting the specific needs of children who come from conflicted, troubled, or deprived environments. If the child has special needs, you must strive to meet those needs or secure appropriate services.
- g. Financial support - Even when the child has a guardian, the parents are still obligated to financially support the child. The guardian may take action to obtain child support. The child may also be eligible for Temporary Aid for Needy Families, TANF (formerly known as AFDC), social security benefits, Veterans Administration benefits, Indian child welfare benefits, and other public or private funds.
- h. Visitation - The court may require that you allow visitation or contact between the child and his or her parents. The child's needs often require that the parent-child relationship be maintained, within reason. However, the court may place restrictions on the visits, such as the requirement of supervision. The court may also impose other conditions in the child's best interest.
- i. Driver's license - As guardian of the person, you have the authority to consent to the minor's application for a driver's license. If you consent, you will become liable for any civil damages that may result if the minor causes an accident. The law requires that anyone signing the DMV application obtain insurance to cover the minor.
- j. Enlistment in the armed services - The guardian may consent to a minor's enlistment in the armed services. If the minor enters into active duty with the armed forces, the minor becomes emancipated under California law.
- k. Marriage - For the minor to marry, the guardian and the court must give permission. If the minor enters a valid marriage, the minor becomes emancipated under California law.
- l. Change of address - A guardian must notify the court in writing of any change in the address of either the child or the guardian. This includes any changes that result from the child's leaving the guardian's home or returning to the parent's home. You must always obtain court permission before you move the child to another state or country.
- m. Court visitors and status reports - Some counties have a program in which "court visitors" track and review guardianships. If your county has such a program, you will be expected to cooperate with all requests of the court visitor. As guardian, you may also be required to fill out and file status reports. In all counties, you must cooperate with the court and court investigators.
- n. Misconduct of the child - A guardian, like a parent, is liable for the harm and damages caused by the willful misconduct of a child. There are special rules concerning harm caused by the use of a firearm. If you are concerned about your possible liability, you should consult an attorney.
- o. Additional responsibilities - The court may place other conditions on the guardianship or additional duties upon you, as guardian. For example, the court may require the guardian to complete counseling or parenting classes, to obtain specific services for the child, or to follow a scheduled visitation plan between the child and the child's parents or relatives. As guardian, you must follow all court orders.

GUARDIAN OF (Name): MINOR	CASE NUMBER:
----------------------------------	--------------

- p. Termination of guardianship of the person - A guardianship of the person automatically ends when the child reaches the age of 18, is adopted, marries, is emancipated by court order, enters into active military duty, or dies. If none of these events has occurred, the child, a parent, or the guardian may petition the court for termination of guardianship. But it must be shown that the guardianship is no longer necessary or that termination of the guardianship is in the child's best interest.

2. GUARDIANSHIP OF THE ESTATE

If the court appoints you as guardian of the child's estate, you will have additional duties and obligations. The money and other assets of the child are called the child's "estate." Appointment as guardian of a child's estate is taken very seriously by the court. The guardian of the estate is required to manage the child's funds, collect and make an inventory of the assets, keep accurate financial records, and regularly file financial accountings with the court.

MANAGING THE ESTATE

- a. Prudent investments - As guardian of the estate, you must manage the child's assets with the care of a prudent person dealing with someone else's property. This means that you must be cautious and may not make speculative or risky investments.
- b. Keeping estate assets separate - As guardian of the estate, you must keep the money and property of the child's estate separate from everyone else's, including your own. When you open a bank account for the estate, the account name must indicate that it is a guardianship account and not your personal account. You should use the child's social security number when opening estate accounts. You should never deposit estate funds in your personal account or otherwise mix them with your own funds or anyone else's funds, even for brief periods. Securities in the estate must be held in a name that shows that they are estate property and not your personal property.
- c. Interest-bearing accounts and other investments - Except for checking accounts intended for ordinary expenses, you should place estate funds in interest-bearing accounts. You may deposit estate funds in insured accounts in federally insured financial institutions, but you should not put more than $100,000 in any single institution. You should consult with an attorney before making other kinds of investments.
- d. Blocked accounts - A blocked account is an account with a financial institution in which money is placed. No person may withdraw funds from a blocked account without the court's permission. Depending on the amount and character of the child's property, the guardian may elect or the court may require that estate assets be placed in a blocked account. As guardian of the estate, you must follow the directions of the court and the procedures required to deposit funds in this type of account. The use of a blocked account is a safeguard and may save the estate the cost of a bond.
- e. Other restrictions - As guardian of the estate, you will have many other restrictions on your authority to deal with estate assets. Without prior court order, you may not pay fees to yourself or your attorney. You may not make a gift of estate assets to anyone. You may not borrow money from the estate. As guardian, you may not use estate funds to purchase real property without a prior court order. If you do not obtain the court's permission to spend estate funds, you may be compelled to reimburse the estate from your own personal funds and may be removed as guardian. You should consult with an attorney concerning the legal requirements relating to sales, leases, mortgages, and investment of estate property. If the child of whose estate you are the guardian has a living parent or if that child receives assets or is entitled to support from another source, you must obtain court approval before using guardianship assets for the child's support, maintenance, or education. You must file a petition or include a request for approval in the original petition, and set forth which exceptional circumstances justify any use of guardianship assets for the child's support. The court will ordinarily grant such a petition for only a limited period of time, usually not to exceed one year, and only for specific and limited purposes.

INVENTORY OF ESTATE PROPERTY

- f. Locate the estate's property - As guardian of the estate, you must locate, take possession of, and protect the child's income and assets that will be administered in the estate. You must change the ownership of all assets into the guardianship estate's name. For real estate, you should record a copy of your Letters of Guardianship with the county recorder in each county where the child owns real property.

- g. Determine the value of the property - As guardian of the estate, you must arrange to have a court-appointed referee determine the value of the estate property unless the appointment is waived by the court. You—not the referee—must determine the value of certain "cash items." An attorney can advise you about how to do this.
- h. File an inventory and appraisal - As guardian of the estate, you must file an inventory and appraisal within 90 days after your appointment. You may be required to return to court 90 days after your appointment as guardian of the estate to ensure that you have properly filed the inventory and appraisal.

INSURANCE

- i. Insurance coverage - As guardian of the estate, you should make sure that there is appropriate and sufficient insurance covering the assets and risks of the estate. You should maintain the insurance in force throughout the entire period of the guardianship or until the insured asset is sold.

RECORD KEEPING AND ACCOUNTING

- j. Records - As guardian of the estate, you must keep complete, accurate records of each financial transaction affecting the estate. The checkbook for the guardianship checking account is essential for keeping records of income and expenditures. You should also keep receipts for all purchases. Record keeping is critical because you will have to prepare an accounting of all money and property that you have received, what you have spent, the date of each transaction, and its purpose. You will also have to be able to describe in detail what is left after you have paid the estate's expenses.
- k. Accountings - As guardian of the estate, you must file a petition requesting that the court review and approve your accounting one year after your appointment and at least every two years after that. The court may ask that you justify some or all expenditures. You should have receipts and other documents available for the court's review, if requested. If you do not file your accounting as required, the court will order you to do so. You may be removed as guardian for failure to file an accounting.
- l. Format - As guardian of the estate, you must comply with all state and local rules when filing your accounting. A particular format is specified in the Probate Code, which you must follow when you present your account to the court. You should check local rules for any special local requirements.
- m. Legal advice - An attorney can advise you and help you prepare your inventories, accountings, and petitions to the court. If you have questions, you should consult with an attorney.

3. OTHER GENERAL INFORMATION

- a. Removal of a guardian - A guardian may be removed for specific reasons or when it is in the child's best interest. A guardian may be removed either on the court's own motion or by a petition filed by the child, a relative of the child, or any other interested person. If necessary, the court may appoint a successor guardian, or the court may return the child to a parent if that is found to be in the child's best interest.
- b. Legal documents - For your appointment as guardian to be valid, the Order Appointing Guardian of Minor must be signed. Once the court signs the order, the guardian must go to the clerk's office, where Letters of Guardianship will be issued. Letters of Guardianship is a legal document that provides proof that you have been appointed and are serving as the guardian of a minor. You should obtain several certified copies of the Letters from the clerk. These legal documents will be of assistance to you in the performance of your duties, such as enrolling the child in school, obtaining medical care, and taking care of estate business.
- c. Attorneys and legal resources - If you have an attorney, the attorney will advise you on your duties and responsibilities, the limits of your authority, the rights of the child, and your dealings with the court. If you have legal questions, you should consult with your attorney. Please remember that the court staff cannot give you legal advice.

NOTICE TO INSTITUTIONS AND FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS
(Probate Code sections 2890–2893)

When these Letters of Guardianship (Letters) are delivered to you as an employee or other representative of an institution or financial institution (described below) in order for the guardian of the estate (1) to take possession or control of an asset of the minor named above held by your institution (including changing title, withdrawing all or any portion of the asset, or transferring all or any portion of the asset) or (2) to open or change the name of an account or a safe-deposit box in your financial institution to reflect the guardianship, you must fill out Judicial Council form GC-050 (for an institution) or form GC-051 (for a financial institution). An officer authorized by your institution or financial institution must date and sign the form, and you must file the completed form with the court.

There is no filing fee for filing the form. You may either arrange for personal delivery of the form or mail it to the court for filing at the address given for the court on page 1 of these Letters.

The guardian should deliver a blank copy of the appropriate form to you with these Letters, but it is your institution's or financial institution's responsibility to complete the correct form, have an authorized officer sign it, and file the completed form with the court. If the correct form is not delivered with these Letters or is unavailable for any other reason, blank copies of the forms may be obtained from the court. The forms may also be accessed from the judicial branch's public website free of charge. The Internet address (URL) is www.courts.ca.gov/forms.htm. Select the form group Probate—Guardianships and Conservatorships and scroll down to form GC-050 for an institution or form GC-051 for a financial institution. The forms may be printed out as blank forms and filled in by typewriter (nonfillable form) or may be filled out online and printed out ready for signature and filing (fillable form).

An institution under California Probate Code section 2890(c) is an insurance company, insurance broker, insurance agent, investment company, investment bank, securities broker-dealer, investment advisor, financial planner, financial advisor, or any other person who takes, holds, or controls an asset subject to a conservatorship or guardianship other than a financial institution. Institutions must file a Notice of Taking Possession or Control of an Asset of Minor or Conservatee (form GC-050) for an asset of the minor or conservatee held by the institution. A single form may be filed for all affected assets held by the institution.

A financial institution under California Probate Code section 2892(b) is a bank, trust (including a Totten trust account but excluding other trust arrangements described in Probate Code section 82(b)), savings and loan association, savings bank, industrial bank, or credit union. Financial institutions must file a Notice of Opening or Changing a Guardianship or Conservatorship Account or Safe-Deposit Box (form GC-051) for an account or a safe-deposit box held by the financial institution. A single form may be filed for all affected accounts or safe-deposit boxes held by the financial institution.

INFORMATION ABOUT GIVING NOTICE OF THE HEARING ON YOUR PETITION AND REQUESTING A GOOD CAUSE EXCEPTION TO GIVING NOTICE

You must give at least five days advance written notice of the court hearing on your petition for appointment of a temporary guardian. The written notice must be personally delivered to (1) the child if he or she is at least 12 years old, (2) the child's parents, and (3) any person who has a valid and effective visitation order with the child. Written notice is given by delivering a filled-in copy of this petition and a filled-in copy of a Notice of Hearing—Guardianship or Conservatorship (form GC-020), showing the date, time, and place of the hearing and the title of this petition. See What Is "Proof of Service" in a Guardianship? (form GC-510) for more information on how to give notice in a guardianship and how to prove that you have given notice. The instructions in that form for personal service apply here, but the time limits for giving notice mentioned in that form do not apply to a temporary guardianship. There is much less time to complete this task when a petition for appointment of a temporary guardian is involved.

The court may waive (excuse) or change the requirement of giving notice if you can show the court good cause why an exception should be made to the requirement of giving notice. This showing may be made by completing item 9b on page 3 of this form.

If you want the court to waive notice to someone because he or she cannot be found, you must show the court that you have made reasonable efforts to find that person. See rules 7.52 and 7.1012 of the California Rules of Court for information on making reasonable efforts to find a person and on the good cause exception to notice of the hearing on a petition for appointment of a temporary guardian.

NOTICE TO INSTITUTIONS AND FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS
 (Probate Code sections 2890–2893)

When these Letters of Temporary Guardianship or Letters of Temporary Conservatorship (Letters) are delivered to you as an employee or other representative of an institution or financial institution (described below) in order for the temporary guardian or temporary conservator of the estate (1) to take possession or control of an asset of the minor or conservatee named above held by your institution (including changing title, withdrawing all or any portion of the asset, or transferring all or any portion of the asset) or (2) to open or change the name of an account or a safe-deposit box in your financial institution to reflect the guardianship or conservatorship, you must fill out Judicial Council form GC-050 (for an institution) or form GC-051 (for a financial institution). An officer authorized by your institution or financial institution must date and sign the form, and you must file the completed form with the court.

There is no filing fee for filing the form. You may either arrange for personal delivery of the form or mail it to the court for filing at the address given for the court on page 1 of these Letters.

The temporary guardian or temporary conservator should deliver a blank copy of the appropriate form to you with these Letters, but it is your institution's or financial institution's responsibility to complete the correct form, have an authorized officer sign it, and file the completed form with the court. If the correct form is not delivered with these Letters or is unavailable for any other reason, blank copies of the forms may be obtained from the court. The forms may also be accessed from the judicial branch's public Web site free of charge. The Internet address (URL) is www.courts.ca.gov/forms/. Select the form group Probate—Guardianships and Conservatorships and scroll down to form GC-050 for an institution or form GC-051 for a financial institution. The forms may be printed out as blank forms and filled in by typewriter, or may be filled out online and printed out ready for signature and filing.
