General Information on Adoptions

Seek legal advice about your family's options before beginning any adoption. Every family is different and adoption may not be necessary for some families. Visit the Self-Help Guide to the California Courts adoption page to get copies of adoption forms, look for organizations that provide legal help with adoptions, and learn how to complete the adoption process on your own if you do not have a lawyer: www.courts.ca.gov/selfhelp-adoption.htm. You can also get copies of adoption forms at your local court clerk's office.

In California there are several kinds of adoption. This information sheet provides steps for the following types:

• Stepparent/domestic partner adoptions

- Independent or agency adoptions in the United States
- Stepparent/domestic partner confirmation of parentage
- · Intercountry adoptions

Page 4 also has information about open adoptions and special requirements for the adoption of Indian (Native American) children.

Stepparent/Domestic Partner Adoptions

If you wish to adopt the child of your spouse or domestic partner, you may be eligible for a stepparent adoption. There are two types of stepparent adoptions. Answer these questions to figure out which process is right for you:

- → Were you in a union with the child's legal parent at the time the child was born and are you still in a union with the legal parent? (A "union" means a marriage, a California registered domestic partnership, or a registered domestic partnership or civil union from another state that is legally equivalent to a marriage.)
- → Did your spouse or domestic partner give birth to the child or was the child born through a gestational surrogacy process brought about by one or both of you?

If you answered no to either question, complete the items below for a stepparent/domestic partner adoption. If you answered yes to both questions, complete the items below for a stepparent adoption to confirm parentage.

1	Fill out court form	s
_	☐ ADOPT-200	Adoption Request	This tells the judge about you and the child you are adopting.
	☐ ADOPT-210	Adoption Agreement	This tells the judge that you and the child, if over 12, agree to the adoption. Fill it out, but do not sign it until the judge asks you to sign it.
	☐ ADOPT-215	Adoption Order	The judge signs this form if your adoption is approved.
	☐ ICWA-010(A)	Indian Child Inquiry Attachment	This lets the judge know that you have asked whether the child may be an Indian child.
	☐ ICWA-020	Parental Notification of Indian Status	One form is required for each birth parent. This shows that the child's parents have been asked about potential Indian status.

	☐ ADOPT-205 (or an equivalent declaration)	Declaration Confirming Parentage in Stepparent Adoption -OR-	This tells the court how you conceived your child and whether there are any other parents. Only use this if you are seeking a stepparent adoption to confirm parentage. See above for more information on this type of adoption. Both the birth parent and the adopting parent must complete a separate declaration.
	ADOPT-206 (or an equivalent declaration)	Declaration Confirming Parentage in Stepparent Adoption: Gestational Surrogacy	This tells the court how you conceived your child and whether there are any other parents. Only use this if you are seeking a stepparent adoption to confirm parentage because the child was conceived through a gestational surrogate and was born outside of California, and the state where the child was born only allowed one intended parent to be named as a legal parent on the child's birth certificate.
