FL-107-INFO Legal Steps for a Divorce or Legal Separation

STEP 1. Start Your Case

- The petitioner (the person who files the first divorce or legal separation forms with the court) fills out and files with the court clerk at least a Petition—Marriage/Domestic Partnership (form FL-100) and a Summons (form FL-110) and, if there are children of the relationship, a Declaration Under Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act (form FL-105).
- The forms needed to start your case and information about filing fees and fee waivers are available at "Filing Your Case," at courts.ca.gov/filing.
- The court clerk will stamp and return copies of the filed forms to the petitioner.

\downarrow

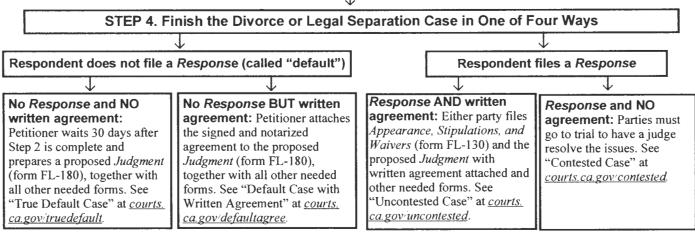

STEP 2. Serve the Forms

- Someone 18 or older-not the petitioner-serves the spouse or domestic partner (called the respondent) with all the forms from Step 1 plus a blank Response-Marriage/Domestic Partnership (form FL-120) and files with the court a proof-of-service form, such as Proof of Service of Summons (form FL-115), telling when and how the respondent was served. (To serve means "to give in the proper legal way.") For more information, see "Serving Your First Set of Court Forms" at courts.ca.gov/filing.
- The respondent has 30 days to file and serve a Response. So, the petitioner must wait 30 days before starting Step 4.

\mathbf{V}

STEP 3. Disclose Financial Information

- At the same time as Step 1 or within 60 days of filing the Petition, the petitioner must fill out and have these documents served on the respondent: Declaration of Disclosure (form FL-140), Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-150), Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142) or Property Declaration (form FL-160), and all tax returns filed by the party in the two years before serving the disclosure documents. These disclosure documents are not filed with the court.
- If the respondent files a Response, he or she must also complete and serve the same disclosure documents on the petitioner within 60 days of filing the Response.
- The 60-day time frame for serving the disclosures may be changed by written agreement between the parties or by court order.
- The petitioner and respondent each file a Declaration Regarding Service (form FL-141) with the court saying disclosures were served. If the respondent does not serve disclosures, the petitioner can still finish the case without them. For more information, see "Fill Out and Serve Your Financial Declaration of Disclosure Forms" at courts.ca.gov/filing (click on Step 4).

IMPORTANT NOTICES

- The earliest you can be divorced is six months and one day from one of these three dates (whichever occurs first):

 the date Respondent was served with the Summons (form FL-110) and Petition (form FL-100), (2) the date the Response (form FL-120) was filed, or (3) the date Appearance, Stipulations, and Waivers (form FL-130) was filed. Legal separation has no waiting period. You are NOT divorced or legally separated until the court enters a Judgment in your case.
- If you need court orders for child support, custody, parenting time (visitation), spousal or partner support, restraining orders, or other issues, file a Request for Order (form FL-300) asking for temporary orders. See "Request for Order Information" at courts.ca.gov/divorcerequests for more information.
- Annulments: See courts.ca.gov/annulment for information about annulments.
- You must keep the court and the other party informed of any change in your mailing address or other contact information. File and serve a Notice of Change of Address or Other Contact Information (form MC-040) on the other party or his or her attorney to let them know about the change in your contact information.

FL-107-INFO Legal Steps for a Divorce or Legal Separation

Do you have a registered domestic partnership? The process for a divorce or legal separation of a domestic partnership is the same as on page 1. For information about ending your domestic partnership in the superior court, see courts.ca. gov/filing. To find out if you are eligible to end your domestic partnership through the Secretary of State, see courts.ca. gov/summdissodp. Note: There may be differences in federal taxes and other issues for domestic partnerships. Seek advice from an attorney experienced in domestic partner law.

What if you want a legal separation? The process on page 1 is the same, except you will NOT get a Judgment for legal separation unless both parties agree to a legal separation OR if respondent has not filed a Response. If both parties agree to be legally separated but do not agree on other issues, the parties must go to trial to have a judge resolve those issues. You are NOT legally separated until you receive a Judgment signed by the court. For more information, see "Legal Separation" at courts.ca.gov/legalseparation. AFTER the court enters a judgment for legal separation, if you decide you want a divorce, you must start a new case to request a divorce and pay another filing fee.

Getting help to resolve divorce or legal separation cases

You may prefer to resolve some or all of the issues in your divorce or legal separation case without having the court decide for you. You and your spouse or domestic partner can put your agreement in writing and file it in your case. But your agreement must follow all legal requirements.

Court Services

- Family Law Facilitators and Self-Help Centers help with court forms and instructions. They can provide samples of agreements and other information and, in some cases, help with mediation.
- Family Court Services. If you and the other parent already have a family law case and have filed a Request for Order (form FL-300) seeking orders about child custody and visitation (parenting time), the court will refer you to Family Court Services. They provide child custody mediation or child custody recommending counseling to try to help you both make a parenting plan that is in the best interest of your child. Note: They cannot help with financial issues.
- Settlement Conferences. An informal process in which a judge or an experienced lawyer meets with the parties and their lawyers to discuss the case and their positions and suggests a resolution. The parties can either agree to the suggestions or use the suggestions to help in further settlement discussions.

Private services (which you can hire to help you resolve your case):

- Lawyers. Also called attorneys, lawyers can help work out agreements between the parties and represent you at court hearings and trials.
- Collaborative Lawyers. Lawyers who represent each party but do not go to court. They try to reach an agreement. If court is necessary, the parties must hire new lawyers.
- Mediators. A lawyer or counselor who helps the parties communicate to explore options and reach a mutually acceptable resolution.

Where can I get help?

This information sheet gives you only basic information on the divorce or legal separation and is not legal advice. If you want legal advice, ask a lawyer for help. You may also:

- Contact the family law facilitator or self-help center in your court for information, court forms, and referrals to local legal resources. For more information, see courts.ca.gov/courtresources.
- Find a lawyer through a certified lawyer referral service on the State Bar of California's website: calbar.ca.gov/LRS or by calling 866-442-2529 (toll-free).
- Hire a private mediator. For more information about court and private services, see courts.ca.gov/selfhelp-adr. htm.
- Find information on the California Courts Online Self-Help Center website: courts.ca.gov/selfhelp.
- Find free and low-cost legal help (if you qualify) at lawhelpcalifornia.org.
- Find information at your local law library or public library.

What if there is domestic violence?

If there is domestic violence or a protective or restraining order, talk to a lawyer, counselor, or mediator before making agreements.

For domestic violence help, call the National Domestic Violence Hotline: 800-799-7233; TDD: 800-787-3224; or 211 (if available in your area).

STANDARD FAMILY LAW RESTRAINING ORDERS

Starting immediately, you and your spouse or domestic partner are restrained from:

- 1. removing the minor children of the parties from the state or applying for a new or replacement passport for those minor children without the prior written consent of the other party or an order of the court;
- 2. cashing, borrowing against, canceling, transferring, disposing of, or changing the beneficiaries of any insurance or other coverage, including life, health, automobile, and disability, held for the benefit of the parties and their minor children;
- 3. transferring, encumbering, hypothecating, concealing, or in any way disposing of any property, real or personal, whether community, guasi-community, or separate, without the written consent of the other party or an order of the court, except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life; and

4. creating a nonprobate transfer or modifying a nonprobate transfer in a manner that affects the disposition of property subject to the transfer, without the written consent of the other party or an order of the court. Before revocation of a nonprobate transfer can take effect or a right of survivorship to property can be eliminated, notice of the change must be filed and served on the other party.

You must notify each other of any proposed extraordinary expenditures at least five business days prior to incurring these extraordinary expenditures and account to the court for all extraordinary expenditures made after these restraining orders are effective. However, you may use community property, quasi-community property, or your own separate property to pay an attorney to help you or to pay court costs.

WARNING-IMPORTANT INFORMATION California law provides that, for purposes of division of property upon dissolution of a marriage or domestic partnership or upon legal separation, property acquired by the parties during marriage or domestic partnership in joint form is presumed to be community property. If either party to this action should die before the jointly held community property is divided, the language in the deed that characterizes how title is held (i.e., joint tenancy, tenants in common, or community property) will be controlling, and not the community property presumption. You should consult your attorney if you want the community property presumption to be written into the recorded title to the property.

ADVERTENCIA—IMFORMACIÓN IMPORTANTE De acuerdo a la ley de California, las propiedades adquiridas por las partes durante su matrimonio o pareja de hecho en forma conjunta se consideran propiedad comunitaria para fines de la división de bienes que ocurre cuando se produce una disolución o separación legal del matrimonio o pareja de hecho. Si cualquiera de las partes de este caso llega a fallecer antes de que se divida la propiedad comunitaria de tenencia conjunta, el destino de la misma quedará determinado por las cláusulas de la escritura correspondiente que describen su tenencia (por ej., tenencia conjunta, tenencia en común o propiedad comunitaria) y no por la presunción de propiedad comunitaria. Si quiere que la presunción comunitaria quede registrada en la escritura de la propiedad, debería consultar con un abogado.

INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING FORM FL-160

Property Declaration (form FL-160) is a multipurpose form, which may be filed with the court as an attachment to a Petition or Response or served on the other party to comply with disclosure requirements in place of a Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142). Courts may also require a party to file a Property Declaration as an attachment to a Request to Enter Default (form FL-165) or Judgment (form FL-180).

When filing a Property Declaration with the court, do not include private financial documents listed below.

Identify the type of declaration completed

- 1. Check "Community and Quasi-Community Property Declaration" on page 1 to use Property Declaration (form FL-160) to provide a combined list of community and quasi-community property assets and debts. Quasi-community property is property you own outside of California that would be community property if it were located in California.
- 2. Do not combine a separate property declaration with a community and quasi-community property declaration. Check "Separate Property Declaration" on page 1 when using Property Declaration to provide a list of separate property assets and debts.

Description of the Property Declaration chart

Pages 1 and 2

- 1. Column A is used to provide a brief description of each item of separate or community or quasi-community property.
- 2. Column B is used to list the date the item was acquired.
- 3. Column C is used to list the item's gross fair market value (an estimate of the amount of money you could get if you sold the item to another person through an advertisement).
- 4. Column D is used to list the amount owed on the item.
- 5. Column E is used to indicate the net fair market value of each item. The net fair market value is calculated by subtracting the dollar amount in column D from the amount in column C ("C minus D").
- 6. Column F is used to show a proposal on how to divide (or confirm) the item described in column A.

Page 3

- 1. Column A is used to provide a brief description of each separate or community or quasi-community property debt.
- 2. Column B is used to list the date the debt was acquired.
- 3. Column C is used to list the total amount of money owed on the debt.
- 4. Column D is used to show a proposal on how to divide (or confirm) the item of debt described in column A.

When using this form only as an attachment to a Petition or Response

- 1. Attach a Separate Property Declaration (form FL-160) to respond to item 9. Only columns A and F on pages 1 and 2 and columns A and D on page 3 are required.
- 2. Attach a Community or Quasi-Community Declaration (form FL-160) to respond to item 10, and complete column A on all pages.

When serving this form on the other party as an attachment to Declaration of Disclosure (form FL-140)

- 1. Complete columns A through E on pages 1 and 2, and columns A through C on page 3.
- 2. Copies of the following documents must be attached and served on the other party:
 - (a) For real estate (item 1): deeds with legal descriptions and the latest lender's statement.
 - (b) For vehicles, boats, trailers (item 4): the title documents.
 - (c) For all bank accounts (item 5, 6, 7): the latest statement.
 - (d) For life insurance policies with cash surrender or loan value (item 10): the latest declaration page.
 - (e) For stocks, bonds, secured notes, mutual funds (item 11): the certificate or latest statement.
 - (f) For retirement and pensions (item 12): the latest summary plan document and latest benefit statement.
 - (g) For profit-sharing, IRAs, deferred compensation, and annuities (item 13): the latest statement.
 - (h) For each account receivable and unsecured note (item 14): documentation of the account receivable or note.
 - (i) For partnerships and other business interests (item 15): the most current K-1 and Schedule C.
 - (j) For other assets (item 16): the most current statement, title document, or declaration.
 - (k) For support arrearages (item 21): orders and statements.
 - (I) For credit cards and other debts (items 23 and 24): the latest statement.
- 3. Do not file copies of the above private financial documents with the court.

When filing this form with the court as a attachment to Request to Enter Default (FL-165) or Judgment (FL-180) Complete all columns on the form.

INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING FORM FL-160

Property Declaration (form FL-160) is a multipurpose form, which may be filed with the court as an attachment to a Petition or Response or served on the other party to comply with disclosure requirements in place of a Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142). Courts may also require a party to file a Property Declaration as an attachment to a Request to Enter Default (form FL-165) or Judgment (form FL-180).

When filing a Property Declaration with the court, do not include private financial documents listed below.

Identify the type of declaration completed

- 1. Check "Community and Quasi-Community Property Declaration" on page 1 to use Property Declaration (form FL-160) to provide a combined list of community and quasi-community property assets and debts. Quasi-community property is property you own outside of California that would be community property if it were located in California.
- 2. Do not combine a separate property declaration with a community and quasi-community property declaration. Check "Separate Property Declaration" on page 1 when using Property Declaration to provide a list of separate property assets and debts.

Description of the Property Declaration chart

Pages 1 and 2

- 1. Column A is used to provide a brief description of each item of separate or community or quasi-community property.
- 2. Column B is used to list the date the item was acquired.
- 3. Column C is used to list the item's gross fair market value (an estimate of the amount of money you could get if you sold the item to another person through an advertisement).
- 4. Column D is used to list the amount owed on the item.
- 5. Column E is used to indicate the net fair market value of each item. The net fair market value is calculated by subtracting the dollar amount in column D from the amount in column C ("C minus D").
- 6. Column F is used to show a proposal on how to divide (or confirm) the item described in column A.
- Page 3
- 1. Column A is used to provide a brief description of each separate or community or quasi-community property debt.
- 2. Column B is used to list the date the debt was acquired.
- 3. Column C is used to list the total amount of money owed on the debt.
- 4. Column D is used to show a proposal on how to divide (or confirm) the item of debt described in column A.

When using this form only as an attachment to a Petition or Response

- 1. Attach a Separate Property Declaration (form FL-160) to respond to item 9. Only columns A and F on pages 1 and 2 and columns A and D on page 3 are required.
- 2. Attach a Community or Quasi-Community Declaration (form FL-160) to respond to item 10, and complete column A on all pages.

When serving this form on the other party as an attachment to Declaration of Disclosure (form FL-140)

- 1. Complete columns A through E on pages 1 and 2, and columns A through C on page 3.
- 2. Copies of the following documents must be attached and served on the other party.
 - (a) For real estate (item 1): deeds with legal descriptions and the latest lender's statement.
 - (b) For vehicles, boats, trailers (item 4): the title documents.
 - (c) For all bank accounts (item 5, 6, 7): the latest statement.
 - (d) For life insurance policies with cash surrender or loan value (item 10): the latest declaration page.
 - (e) For stocks, bonds, secured notes, mutual funds (item 11): the certificate or latest statement.
 - (f) For retirement and pensions (item 12): the latest summary plan document and latest benefit statement.
 - (g) For profit-sharing, IRAs, deferred compensation, and annuities (item 13): the latest statement.
 - (h) For each account receivable and unsecured note (item 14): documentation of the account receivable or note.
 - (i) For partnerships and other business interests (item 15): the most current K-1 and Schedule C.

 - (k) For support arrearages (item 21): orders and statements.
 - (I) For credit cards and other debts (items 23 and 24): the latest statement.
- 3. Do not file copies of the above private financial documents with the court.

When filing this form with the court as a attachment to Request to Enter Default (FL-165) or Judgment (FL-180) Complete all columns on the form.
